Online Examination

The individual interview will be conducted via Zoom (Zoom Video Communications, Inc.). Please prepare your own examination environment and equipment.

How to Obtain the Examination Card

The Examination Card can be printed from Eikei's Online Application System.

1. Log in to Eikei's Online Application System.
2. Select the "Application" tab and open the "Application Form" for the admission category for which you have applied.
3. Print the "Examination Card" on page 3 of the Application Form.

1 Preparation

- 1) Prepare a quiet environment (e.g., a room at home).
- 2) Print out the "Examination Card." It will be used for identification at the second-stage selection.
- 3) Prepare a computer or tablet, microphone, and earphones or headphones for a video meeting.
A computer connected to a wired LAN is preferred. Smartphones are not preferred for taking the exam.
- 4) Install the Zoom application on the computer. Access the Join a Test Meeting – Zoom website and check the audio and video settings.
- 5) Edit the display name in Zoom to "Examination ID Number."

2 Prohibitions and Precautions

The following examination rules must be observed.

If the applicant violates any of the following rules and the university confirms the violation, all examination results will be invalidated, and the applicant's admission will be revoked.

- No one except the applicant is allowed to be present in or enter the examination room.
- Failure to follow instructions given by the university is prohibited.
- Moving to another room or leaving the online examination room without permission is prohibited.
- The use of devices, materials other than those designated by the university is not permitted.
- Recording of the examination and disclosing it to others are not permitted (e.g., posting on websites, social media, etc.).
- The use of virtual backgrounds during the online examination is not allowed.
- During the examination, communication with anyone who is not taking the examination by any means is prohibited.

In Addition, Please Note the Following.

- Be sure to connect to Zoom at the time designated by the university and wait for permission to enter the room. In the case that applicants do not connect to Zoom by the designated time, it will be considered as absent, and the examination will not be re-scheduled.
- The university will not contact applicants individually on the examination day.
- The examination will be conducted in Japan standard time (UTC+9). Those who take the examination from outside Japan should be aware of the time difference.
- When connecting to Zoom from a public place, please make sure that there will be no noise or other people talking during the examination.
- Only one device is allowed to connect to Zoom. If the university permits, connection from more than one device at the same time will be permitted.
- If the internet connection is lost during the examination, or if the examination is deemed too difficult to continue the examination due to the internet environment, the examination may be stopped. In this case, a reexamination or other examination means may be used for evaluation. Connection failures due to the internet environment will not affect the evaluation of the applicant.
- In addition to the examination ID, the applicant will be required to present identification documents (such as student ID card with a photograph, passport, driver's license, etc). Furthermore, the university may check the room in which the applicant is taking the examination and the surrounding environment, and may give instructions to move to a different room.
- To ensure fairness in the examination, the university will record the entire examination. Recorded data will be strictly managed by the university and will be used solely for the purpose of admission selection.

Additionally, if the university instructs the applicants to take certain actions, please follow the instructions.

Enrollment Procedures

1 How to Proceed
